

Points are descriptive means across frozen model/regime combinations; model-specific cross-seed uncertainty is reported in the Supporting Information.